● Professional Experience

- 2006-2004 Office of Community Arts Partnership at Columbia College, Chicago, IL, *Arts Integration Specialist
Working as a liaison between the college and Chicago Public Schools. I am focusing on the needs of teaching artists (mostly CCC faculty), and CPS teachers and administrators. Creating a strong working relationship with each group, while integrating and implementing the arts into their curriculums to meet the specific needs in each classroom and/or administration (most commonly; literacy). I am the Curriculum Coordinator and media specialist (documentation) for Project AIM.

I also work to provide Arts-Integration Instruction for "Saturday Scholars" and was the Head Curriculum Writer for "Dance Africa" for several years, which I followed-up with a corresponding teacher training session.
- 2004-2002 South Shore Small School of the Arts, Chicago, IL
Created and implemented an art course to support an Afrocentric curriculum with interdisciplinary integrated units in a teacher led, student centered Chicago Public school with support from the Gates Foundation. Also worked with Gallery 37 as a program liaison, led an art critics club, worked as an instructor for the Academic Decathlon, and enlisted students to join artist Dawoud Bey in creating and publishing, "The Chicago Project", in conjunction with the Alfred Smart Museum at the University of Chicago.
- 2001 South Shore High School, Chicago, IL
Created and implemented art foundation courses. Co-instructor for Academic Decathlon, students created set backdrops that traveled the nation for an alumni's production, "Big Time", and served on the reading committee.
- 2001-2000 Neiman Marcus, Northbrook, IL, *Visual Stylist
Created original displays of both hard and soft-line merchandise. Purchased and arranged weekly floral arrangements for the store. Aided in organizing special events rearranging from fashion shows to benefits and our In-Circle parties. Consulted with vendors to organize shipments and point-of-sale priorities. I was recognized twice with a Neiman Marcus' Award of Excellence. Main areas of specialty are hard-line home decor, cosmetics and windows.
- 2000 Hyde Park Art Center, Chicago, IL
Created and implemented a ten-week elementary course for the Visual Learners Program combining art, reading, and writing to increase school test scores.

Blake School for the Fine Arts, Tampa, FL
Lecturer on the birth of modern and contemporary art
- 2000-1998 B.A.S.I.C., Chicago, IL
